Dr. Mark M. Yarbrough
SIXTH PRESIDENT
DALLAS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

*D*r. Mark Yarbrough serves as the sixth president of Dallas Theological Seminary and a professor of Bible Exposition. He has been in a variety of positions during his tenure at DTS: Research Assistant to the President, Executive Director of Information Technology, Associate Dean for External Education, Vice President for Communications, Academic Dean, and Vice President of Academic Affairs.

His undergraduate degree is from Dallas Christian College, where he was named Valedictorian and received the Delta Epsilon Chi Award. At DTS, he received his ThM in 1996 and PhD in 2008.

Mark regularly presents at academic gatherings and conferences on biblical and pastoral themes, including such places as Camp of the Woods, Maranatha Conference Center, Mount Hermon, Billy Graham Training Center at The Cove, and Word of Life. He has published in various magazines and has written several books, including How to Read the Bible Like a Seminary Professor and the recently released Jonah: Beyond the Tale of a Whale. Mark is also an accomplished musician, having co-authored and recorded multiple songs and albums.

Mark also serves as an elder at Centerpoint Church in Mesquite, Texas. He enjoys spending time with his family and following the Cowboys, Mavericks, Rangers, and Stars. He has been married for twenty-nine years to his high-school sweetheart, Jennifer, and they have four adult children and one son-in-law: Kayla and Garrett Chandler, Jacob, Joseph, and Kayci. The Yarbroughs live in Sunnyvale, Texas.

Brief History OF DALLAS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

In the fall of 1924, the first student body of Dallas Theological Seminary met to study under noted Bible teacher Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer. This class of thirteen students was the result of Dr. Chafer's burden and vision to establish a seminary that would emphasize expository preaching and teaching of the Scriptures.

Dr. Chafer first shared the vision that would become Dallas Theological Seminary with Dr. Alex B. Winchester, pastor emeritus of Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Canada, and Dr. W. H. Griffith Thomas, an Anglican scholar and professor of Old Testament Exegesis at Wycliffe College, Toronto. Two years later, while Dr. Chafer was ministering at First Presbyterian Church in Dallas, he shared his burden with the pastor of that church, Dr. William M. Anderson.

Dr. Chafer and Dr. Anderson assembled the first temporary board. In May 1924 Dr. Rollin T. Chafer organized the school, which was incorporated by the state of Texas as the Evangelical Theological College. The name was changed to Dallas Theological Seminary and Graduate School of Theology in July 1936 and later shortened to Dallas Theological Seminary in 1969. The Seminary pioneered the four-year Master of Theology degree (ThM), which is a year longer than the Master of Divinity degree offered at most other seminaries and emphasizes systematic theology, Hebrew and Old Testament exegesis, Greek and New Testament exegesis, and Bible exposition. DTS also offered the Doctor of Theology degree.

In 1974 the Seminary instituted the two-year Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) for students whose ministries would not require the in-depth language training of the ThM program. It was renamed the Master of Arts (Christian Studies) degree in 1915. The Doctor of Ministry degree was introduced in 1980 to provide further pastoral training for Seminary graduates to meet the changing demands of ministry. The Master of Arts in Cross-Cultural Ministries degree was inaugurated in 1987 to give specialized missions training (degree name will change to Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies [MAIS] in 2021).

In 1993 the Seminary launched a three-year Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling (MABC) degree program and a two-year Master of Arts in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics (MABEL) degree program. The latter program is offered jointly with Dallas International University in south Dallas. Also in 1993, the Seminary changed the nomenclature of the ThD to the PhD.

In 2004 the Online Education program began. In 2005 the Seminary launched the Master of Arts in Media and Communication (MAMC) degree program for those interested in employing the media arts in ministry (name changed to Master of Arts in Media Arts and Worship [MAMW] in 2013). The first online Chinese course was offered in 2006. In 2011 the Seminary began offering the Master of Arts in Christian Leadership (MACL) degree program. In 2012 the Seminary began offering a Doctor of Educational Ministry (DEdMin) program. The Master of Biblical and Theological Studies (MBTS) program and the academic Master of Arts degree with majors in Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, and Theological Studies began in 2015. In 2016 the first online course in Spanish was offered as part of the DTS en Español initiative. In 2020 the Seminary launched two new degree programs, the Master of Arts in Apologetics and Evangelism (MAAE) and the Master of Arts in Chaplaincy and Ministry Care (MACP), and began offering most MA degrees with an entirely distance-based option.

DTS began the fall 2020 semester in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic with a record enrollment of 2,486. The spring 2021 semester began with a new record enrollment of 2,551.

Throughout the Seminary's history it has steadfastly maintained its allegiance to biblical truth. A doctrinal statement articulates the beliefs of DTS, and each year the faculty and board members reaffirm their agreement with this statement.
